By Joe Ziino

On Sunday April 11th , we visited the Meadowmere Assisted Living Center in Mequon. It was a pleasant afternoon as we performed for about 30 residents and staff bringing a little joy to the community along with promoting the excellence of our German Shepherds.

For those of you who have never attended one of our programs, we typically start our demonstrations with an overview of how we train our “friends”, at the same time providing the audience with an entertaining program. Our program consists of general healing as a group, followed by jumping exercises from open dogs and utility work from our UD dogs. Additionally depending upon the size of the area we are working in, we perform some modified agility exercises and anything else we can think of to present our “four legged friends” in the best light to the community.

On this Sunday, we started off doing some therapy work, socializing the dogs and then went into our obedience-training program. We focused on the training for beginners and then introduced our more experienced friends. We mixed our experienced dogs with the young ones during long sits and downs, which many times are interesting especially with me running around them trying to make our dogs break. Surprisingly, the young dogs don't do badly on this exercise, which shows they have a lot of stability and confidence or maybe they think it's humorous to watch me run around..

I would like to thank everyone participating for coming out this day.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank Cindy Demler for all training and effort she put into showing Zeke and earning all of his single AKC points. It was a fun time!

I would also like to thank the team of Diane and Tim Brown. Diane and Tim believed that Zeke could become a finished champion and as Diane promised he now is.

Without these three dedicated people this would not have come true...Thank you again.

BREED SURVEY

What is a Breed Survey and what in the world does KKL mean when it follows a dog's name? And what is the difference between KKL1 and KKL2? And are the words lbz or lebens important as part of the KKL designation? Is any of this information valuable to me as a prospective puppy buyer?

Well, it is very important and valuable to you. We will discuss what is involved in getting the KKL or Breed Survey, but the bottom line is that you have a much better chance of getting a sound puppy in structure, workability and temperament from a Breed Surveyed sire and dam. The Breed Survey (Körung in German) is indicated by KKL1 or KKL2 after a dog's name and titles. It is a demanding examination of a dog's suitability for breeding. As part of the Breed Survey, the dog's structural qualities are thoroughly examined including weight and height. The temperament of the dog is also closely examined through a test for gun sensitivity and a test of the dog's protection capabilities.

You might wonder if any German Shepherd could participate in these tests. The answer is that before a dog can even be considered for the Breed Survey, it must meet several requirements. The dog must demonstrate sound nerve and temperament by passing the BH obedience and temperament test. The dog must be titled in Schutzhund which involves many months and years of training in tracking, obedience and protection. The dog's hips must be OFA certified or receive the equivalent rating from Germany indicated by the "a" stamp designation. The dog must have passed the AD test demonstrating physical soundness by running over 12 miles while the handler bicycles. The dog must also be tattooed and have a show rating of at least G (good) at a German style conformation show.

There are other details that the Breed Survey Master will note on the papers such as pigmentation, coat type, eye and toenail color, expression, firmness of back and pasterns, proper dentition, correctness of ears and correctness of the movement coming and going. The Breed Survey report may also include recommendations for breeding or add precautions that certain bloodlines should be avoided. The report may also indicate the dog's special qualities or shortcomings.

The Breed Survey Master can place the dog in KKL1, which means "highly recommended for breeding," or KKL2, which means still "suitable for breeding." In some instances, a dog does not qualify for either category in which case the dog is "not recommended for breeding." Many criteria determine whether the dog is placed in KKL1 or KKL2. For example, if the dog exceeds the height in the standards by one centimeter, it will be placed in KKL2. If the dog is more than one centimeter oversized or undersized, it will be ineligible to receive the Breed Survey at all. Missing specific teeth will also either place the dog in the KKL2 category or make it totally ineligible. The dog's performance in the protection work is also a factor. If he rates "sufficient" (vorhanden), the dog can only be placed into KKL2. Generally speaking, the show rating must be SG (very good) or V (excellent) for the dog to receive a KKL1.

The earliest time for a dog to be Breed Surveyed for the first time is during the year that it will be two years old if all other requirements are met. If the dog receives the initial Breed Survey in 1999, the survey is valid for the years 2000 and 2001. However, in order for the dog to be surveyed for life (lebens, lbz), the dog must be again presented to the Breed Survey Master no later than the end of 2001. The dog must again undergo a complete examination along with temperament and protection tests. If the dog passes all the tests, it is awarded the KKL for life in either KKL1 or KKL2. Occasionally the Breed Survey Master elevates a dog from the KKL2 to the KKL1 level or lowers the rating. The results from the Breed Survey are read aloud to the owner and the public. The Breed Survey results are included in a certificate, which is given to the owner.

So you can see that the designation of "KKL1-lbz" really means a great deal to you if you are looking for a puppy. You will hopefully have your dog for many years, and you want to ensure that you start with the best in structure, workability and temperament.

Dear Members of the German Shepherd Club of Wisconsin;

In response to your concern about HAWS and their relationship with HSUS, I am thrilled to be invited to speak with you. HAWS is a private non-profit and not a subsidiary of any large governing branch. We are not governed by HSUS, AHA, ASPCA. We have participated in their Spay / Day program and will defiantly rethink this in the future. What is done nationally is of much less significance then what we do locally, as we pride ourselves on being a strong community partner.

- HAWS' does not put funds into legislative activities. We were not in attendance for the "Puppy Mill" bill. Our mission deals with providing shelter and education. Our education is focused responsible pet ownership encouraging interaction, training, and enhancing the quality of life for all of these animals. Dog clubs, especially the GSD club, demonstrate this in many ways and are examples of responsibility, even in breeding.
- The quality education, training and beauty of the GSD's that attend our walk help show the public what is possible with a bit of effort; and what is necessary for responsibility.
- Everyone wants Lassie or RinTinTin but the public (our primary clients) lack the knowledge on where to go to build this type of relationship. We refer people to you routinely.
- HAWS is not against breeding at all. We do however advocate responsible breeding which, I believe dog clubs do, too.
- I am on the Board of the Wisconsin Federated Humane Societies, trying to give a more open perspective, among those with a more radical agenda.

We appreciate our relationship and hope in can continue. Now is the time for us to concentrate on common sense approaches to quality animal relationships and shared goals, not force a division.

Sincerely,

REPORT ON THE SPRING CLEANUP

WINDY---VERY WINDY SUMMARIZES SATURDAY APRIL 17.

ALL WE HAD TO DO WAS TO GET THE LEAVES UP INTO THE AIR AND THEY WOULD BE IN KENOSHA! WISHFULL THINKING! GETTING THE LEAVES OUT OF THE GUTTERS, FENCES AND AWAY FROM THE BUILDINGS WAS WORK BUT GETTING THEM INTO TARPS, TRASH BARRELS AND TRAILERS WAS A REAL CHALLENGE. WE PERSEVERED AND WE WON THE BATTLE. THE LEAVES EVENTUALLY WERE HAULED TO OUR "WOODS" ON THE BACK 40.

THE OUTDOOR WORK ALSO INCLUDED GETTING THE PARKING LOT AND FENCING BACK IN SHAPE. JIM ALTWIES AND TIM BROWN REALLY DID THE HEAVY DUTY JOB OF REDISTRIBUTING THE GRAVEL AROUND THE LOT. CAROL LUMLEY DID HER ANNUAL PROJECT—THE FLOWER GARDENS.

SINCE WE'RE OUTDOORS NOW FOR TRAINING PLEASE NOTE OUR BEAUTIFULLY SHAPED TREES. THIS PAST FALL ALL THE TREES ON OUR GROUNDS HAVE BEEN PROFESSIONALLY TRIMMED BY CLAUDE BLOSKEY OUR OWN IN-HOUSE ARBORIST. FINALLY CARS AND PEOPLE WON'T HAVE TO DUCK BRANCHES AGAIN. THANKS CLAUDE FOR A GREAT JOB.

INSIDE [AND OUT OF THE WIND] THE CLUBHOUSE DID NOT GET OVER-LOOKED. MAJOR DUSTING, WINDOWS AND FLOOR WORK WAS DONE. ONCE AGAIN DANIELLE BIRDEAU DID THE TEDIOUS JOB OF COMPLETELY REDOING THE PICTURE BOARDS AFTER CONSTRUCTION AND STORAGE. THANKS DANIELLE FOR A REALLY NEAT JOB. A SPECIAL MENTION HAS TO GO TO TWO YOUNG ENERGETIC GUYS, TYLER AND RYAN RADTKE. THEY DID THE WORK OF AT LEAST FOUR OTHER PEOPLE. [YOUTH IS WONDERFUL !]

AS IN ANY GOOD ARMY THE TROOPS HAD TO BE FED---AND WERE THEY EVER!! ONCE AGAIN SHARON GOLDEN DID HER FOOD MAGIC—GROURMET BRATS AND ITALIAN BOMBERS WITH THE TRIMMINGS. JOLENE JIMDARS TOPPED OFF THE MEAL WITH SEVERAL GREAT DESSERTS.

WORKING AND EATING TOGETHER SURE CREATES A BOND. NOW DON'T YOU WISH YOU WOULD HAVE VOLUNTEERED?

LASTLY A BIG THANKS TO THE ENTIRE CLEAN UP CREW:

MARY PLUTA, DENNIS KRATZ , LINDA CEKOSH, TYLER RADTKE, RYAN RADTKE, JACK JIMDARS, JOLINE JIMDARS, PAULA ZUEHR, TERRY SHROEDER, ANGELA TOJEK, JIM ALTWIES, MARG MEURER, TIM BROWN, PAULETTE GALLATIN, SHARON GOLDEN, DANIELLS BIRDEAU, LOIS KUTSCHERA, CAROL LUMLEY & CAMILLE AND RON LABINSKI

Judges Ballot

Per standing club rules, all judges must be nominated and voted on by the general membership. This ballot was originally printed in the February Tales, and those judges selected were contacted. However, due to conflicts, only one was available in each category. We therefore eliminated those names and ask that you revote for one of the judges listed below or write in one of your choice.

Note: Only members in good standing may vote. Your signature must be at the bottom of the ballot for it to be counted. If there are 2 members in your household, please use the second ballot printed in the Tales.

Please vote for one of the following judges in each category.
