By Joe Ziino

Saturday September 18th, we had the opportunity to put on a demonstration at a park located behind the Bavarian Inn Restaurant where they were having their annual Oktoberfest festivities. This was the 5th year we have put on this demonstration and a first for a Saturday evening crowd.

We were a little concerned at the start of the day due to the rain, but by early afternoon the sky cleared and the weather was perfect as we performed for a good-sized crowd at the festival. We had a good turnout of dogs and handlers for this event and the people of Oktoberfest were very pleased with our demonstration of obedience and agility and presented us with a donation check for $100 for our efforts.

We spent a lot of time prior to the demonstration and afterward socializing our dogs with the children and adults attending the festival as we walked around the grounds. We had 2 dogs dressed in costume that attracted a lot of attention, Peter Edward dressed in Alpine attire and Molly dressed in an Alpine dress with flowered hat. This was an excellent demonstration of the temperament of all our dogs as the both children and adults were able to approach and pet the dogs. We had lots of positive feedback and all the dogs did an excellent job promoting the breed.

For those of you who have never attended one of our programs, we provide an overview of how we train our “friends”, at the same time trying to provide the audience with an entertaining program. Our program consists of general healing as a group, followed by jumping exercises from open dogs and utility work from our UD dogs. We follow our training program with an agility demonstration. Because there was a large group of children at this event, after the demonstration we handed out AKC coloring books that help to educate children on the care and handling of dogs. Our four-legged friends as usual did a great job at demonstrating their obedience and agility prowess. Overall everyone seemed to have a great time, along with providing some good community service work before and after the demonstrations.

Thanks again to everyone who participated;

Agility Training Update Takin' a Break

Between some personal commitments of the instructors and reduced class attendance, it makes sense to take a break from agility training. So, there will be no agility classes held during the months of September and October. Classes will resume indoors in November.

Agility is fun sport for us to share with our dogs. It's a great opportunity to get some one-on-one time with our best friend(s), get a little exercise, and improve both verbal and nonverbal human-canine communication skills.

If you are interested in joining us on Saturday mornings this winter, please contact Cheri Antony (instructor) by phone at 414-327-9912 or via e-mail at gsd@theantonys.com, or Lois Kutschera (Director of Training) by phone at 262-835-4245.

Thank You – Thank You

To to all who volunteered to steward in obedience and rally for our shows.

Dennis Kratz who not only helped out on Friday afternoon with the Tempermant Test, but also stewarded both Saturday and Sunday for our Obedience judges. My good friend Dona Barsul, a member of our club some years ago, was our table steward for Rally both days. Thanks so much. Chris Hesseltine who we don't see very often in class – but is always willing to help steward for our shows. Vickie Buchanan who again this year entered her dog in our show but had to pull her out – so we benefited because Vickie agreed to steward. Although we are certainly thankful when Vickie agrees to steward – we do hope next year she will be able to show her dog. Also Jim Martz, Danielle Birdeau, Tina Felle, Pat Thor, and Joe Caputa and Camille Labinski who jumped in on Sunday to help the judge set up the Rally Courses and help with the Obedience classes.

We had two great judges, Diane Allen and Randy Capsul, who were wonderful with the exhibitors and very considerate – willing to wait for exhibitors who were showing in other classes.

The success of our show always depends on the willingness of our members to help out with the many jobs and chores – be it in the kitchen serving our great lunch, or out on the field stewarding.

Again – thank you.

Lois K., Obedience Chairman

Attention German Shepherd Dog Club of Wisconsin Membership:

The current economic climate has left no rock unturned and no life untouched. From individuals to multi-billion dollar enterprises, we have all been affected. In an effort to combine the technology of the 21st century with good frugal fund management, we will be trialing a web-version of the GSDC of WI “Shepherd Tales” with the November edition of our monthly newsletter.

It is our hope that in doing so, we can present an option for significant savings to the club (and ultimately the membership) in print cost and postage and still provide for an excellent communication and information outlet to our membership. In the future we look to providing a web version of the “Shepherd Tales” for all members with email access that is easily printable and to continue to provide a hard copy of our periodical to our members that do not have access to the internet. The loyalty and ingenuity of our membership is the cement that has kept our club the quality organization it has been for so many years and for so many individuals and their German Shepherds. The empathy that we have for one another is one of the intangible benefits of our club. These are the qualities that we are counting on in trialing our “new” venture. The internet is a very useful tool and provides the club with many format and visual options that were previously unavailable. In addition to the concrete economic benefits inherent in this trial, there is unlimited creative possibility “unleashed.” This is an exciting venture in terms of presentation potential and we strongly welcome the “collective creativity” of our membership!!

Thank you for your support!
